Easter is a magical time to be here in the tropical paradise of the Maldives, a season of glorious temperatures, dazzling blue skies, warm, peaceful waters and sublime sunsets.

Whatever the occasion, a romantic getaway, a trip with friends or a fun family vacation, our islands of adrenaline-fueled adventure and peaceful solitude will give you the opportunity to discover new passions and to refresh and rejuvenate.

“Nature’s Playground” always celebrates Easter with style and panache. This year, we have laid on a wondrous array of activities. whether you are young or old, adventurous or seeking tranquility. Delicious seasonal feasts, magical therapies at Drift by Niyama, with celebrity practitioners, and so much for the kids to do, with an Easter Egg Hunt, beach games, parties and more...

SURF AT NIYAMA PRIVATE ISLANDS MALDIVES

Meet Our New Surf Coach – Brad Gerlach

Surf Coach, former pro surfer, your ticket to better surfing. Work with Brad under his original and unique Wave-Ki methodology to take your surfing to the next level. Wave Ki involves a martial art-like focus on slow, precise movements that embed a powerful surfing pattern deep within you. It trains your body and mind to extract every ounce of energy from the ocean, enhancing every part of your surfing.

Wave Ki training has a point of difference to all other surf related systems. You do not practice Wave Ki in the water. The land-based approach enables you to achieve a heightened level of focus on the individual move, practicing in your own space, in your own time. Practitioners of Wave Ki soon begin to see improvements in body awareness subliminally occurring in their surfing. As the human nervous system adapts to Wave Ki, a surfer's performance can infinitely improve.

To compliment the land training, Brad will also be doing in-water training with guests should the book sessions with him.

Brad was #1 on the leader board during most of the 1991 ASP World Surfing Championship tour, before he turned his career focus to Big Waves, earning the XXXL Biggest wave award in 2006 for a 68foot wave surf at Todos Santos. Currently Brad focuses on coaching clients, which include Parker Coffin

Please reach out to your Thakuru or visit the surf center for more information.
